History

Spain became a member of the International Ice Hockey Federation on March 10th, 1923

The Spanish women national team made their debut at an international event at Cergy, France where they lost the event's opening match on 21 May 2009 against a Bavaria women's team with a score of 1-10.

They also celebrated their first victory on the same day, beating the Grefrath Lady Panthers 4-0.

Their first match against another national team at that event was their match against Belgium on 22 May 2009, which they lost 1-3. The Spanish national team had their World Championship debut at the 2011 Women's World Championships Division V in Sofia, Bulgaria where they played Bulgaria, Ireland, Poland and Turkey national teams losing only to Poland 5-4.

Spain has played in Division II Group B of the IIHF World Championship program ever since.
