Histroy

History

Denmark became a member of the International Ice Hockey Federation on April 27, 1947

Denmark junior national team won the 2011 World Junior Championships Division I Group B In Bled, Slovenia and gained promotion to the top division for the 2012 World Junior Championships In Calgary & Edmonton, Canada for the first time in their history.

In this edition they were relegated again to World Junior Championships Division I Group A In Amiens, France for 2013.

The Danes finished first in Group IA in the 2014 World Junior Championships Division I Group A In Sanok, Poland and were promoted the top division for the 2015 World Junior Championships In Toronto & Montreal Canada.

During the 2015 World Juniors the Danes won their first ever game in the Top Division with a 4-3 shootout win over Switzerland. This win allowed Denmark to finish 4th in Group B and, for the first time, advance to quarter finals, which guaranteed them their highest finish ever in the tournament and avoided relegation for the first time. After a quarter final loss to Canada, the Dane's finished 8th place.
